Liturgy & Worship

Sin is nothing else than to neglect eternal things and seek after temporal things. My sin was all the more incurable because... I would rather have You, God Almighty, vanquished in me to my destruction than myself vanquished by You for my salvation.

~St. Augustine

Repentance is returning from the unnatural to the natural state, from the devil to God, through discipline and effort.

~St. John of Damascus

In the Catholic Wedding will the priest be asking, "who gives this woman to the man?"

No. This is not part of the Catholic marriage rite. It happens on television, in movies, and in some churches in real life.

The Catholic rite does not include this question.
